

Please do not relax the requirement that incumbent local exchange carriers (ILECs), e.g., phone companies like Verizon, share their network facilities. In fact, please tighten the requirement, so that consumers never have to pay higher rates for competing companies' broadband line charges.